A naval action took place between the Greek and Turkish fleets on the 25th July, in the channel between Samos and Chios, which lasted 3 days, and terminated in the destruction of the latter; consisting of 17 ships of war, and 32 transports with 13,000 troops on board.

In the Morez, the Greeks had been reduced to submission. A desperate battle had been fought, in which the insurgents had been defeated with a loss of 3,000 men. Tripalitza has been reduced by the army of Ypsilanti. The people of Madrid were in daily expectation of disastrous events, in that capital. Those who had any thing to lose were leaving that city. Gen. Morillo was said to be at the head of a counter revolutionary project. He had been put on his trial. The Minister of war had been dismissed, to satisfy the club, Fontana d'Or, and all his colleagues had threatened to give in their resignations in consequence.

The king of England, was on his passage from Ireland, having been detained by contrary winds.

The squadron having the king on board, had been obliged to put into Milford Haven, whence they departed on the 11th. A part of the vessels belonging to the royal squadron, arrived at Plymouth on the 12th. The arrival of the other ships with the king was momently expected.

Lord Lauderdale is stated to b: confined to his bed, by severe indisposition, at Dunbar Castle, in Scotland.

The Duke of Wellington had returned to England. A report wis published in the London papers, that a son of marshal Ney had challenged the Duke, which in note from the Duke, is contradicted, in which he says, "the whole statement is false."

The following is the answer which, it it said the Reis Effendi has de spatched direct to St. Peterburgh.

11. That all the measures which have been put in force by order of the Porte, in the various provinces of Turkey have been directed a gainst rebels, without any intention of attacking the Christian Religion.

42. That the execution of the Greek Patriarch, far from being an assassination of the Chief of the Greek Church, can only be regarded as the just punishment of a traitor. With respect to the outrage offered to his remains, it can only be the subject of accusation against the fantastical populace. It gave great regret to the Porte.

"3. That, doubtless, a just distinction ought to have been made between the guilty and the innocent, in the sanguinary executions which have taken place; but in civil commotions, it happens too oiten, that guilty-excesses cannot be prevented. "4. That the Porte engages to reconstruct the churches and chapels which have been destroyed or despoiled; and to make reparation, 15 far as it shall bein its power, for the disorders, which, to its deep regret, have taken place.

"5. That, finally, the Principalis ties. of Wallacnia and Moldavia would be immediately evacuated by the Ottoman forces, and the former order of things re-established, when the rebels shall have been expelled thence, and peace and tranquility restored.?"

Extract of a letter from Paris, "You are no doubt aware that the object of Lord Wellington's vuit to Paris was for the express put. pose of urging the French Govert. ment to join us in a league, offensire and defensive, for promptly oppor-ing the projects of Alexander. Yet are aware of his having had conformences with most of the foreign min sters at Paris; his interviews with the King are said to have bees the most interesting description. rations My informant asserts, that we had offered to restore the old limits ey have France to the Rhine, Savoy, the list ustrian of France, and one of two of the Nept. rasean. Louis is said to have un tered into the stories and revered Louis Wellington to the Minister at Wat. The lattur use agually well disposed bus he proved, by official documents and private information that there would be no possibility of forming an army to act with effect. forming an army to act with effect in such a scheme, while, if put together as constituted by Napoleon, the present dynasty must be sacri-ficed as a matter of course. The Duke's conference with Panai di Borgo had for its object a remon-strance against an annual nof ter-ritory or, indeed, a declaration of war on the parts of Russia; with a threat, that if Alexanders views were followed up, a general war in Europe must be the consequence. Having failed in our efforts here, it is supposed we shall look to Spain, and those other means of creating a party in our favour to which we have often resorted on former occasions. With respect to the actual state of things between Russia and the Porte, no one here believes peace can be preserved, or that the autocrat will forego the golden opportunity. Nothing can be more popular than the projected war amongst all classes in Russia; & the best informed persons here say that Alexander is urged on every side to commence hostilities. Nothing, therefore, but unconditional submission on the side of the Turks will lead to a pacification. In this latter case, will the Cabinets of London and Paris acquiesce in the new arrangements."

Odessa, Aug. 14,-No person here has any doubt that hostilities will speedily commence. It is even thought that the couriers which have been despatched to the fleet and head quarters, were bearers of the necessary instructions. A formal declaration by our august sovereign is now looked for.

Ploughing Match.

The Middlesex (Conn.) Gazette gives the following account of a Ploughing Match which took place in that town, at a late meeting of its Agricultural Society:-

"In the afternoon of the 17th inst. the Ploughing Match took place in the north part of the city, in a field of upland sward, belonging to Captain Isaac Bacon. The field was marked out into seven parts; each (after deducting two furrows ploughed prior to starting, for the purpose of trying and regulating the ploughs) containing about six-sevenths of one quarter of an acre.

"Six ploughs started at the same time. One of them was a wheel plough drawn by one yoke of oxen and a horse—or bed by Thos. Mather, esq. of Middletown, and conducted by two hired men-it performed its work in a handsome manner. The other five were patent iron ploughs, made by Barnard of Hartford, drawn by one yoke of oxen each, and owned by the following gentlemen, who were competitors for the premiums:

It is said that the New-York mar-ket was drained of flour before the arrival in port of the ship bringing ascounts of a scarcity in England. This was done by a passenger who left the ship when 60 miles from land, and who was in New-York making purchases nearly a whole day incog.

intelligency was received hat evening from A. When Eaq. Post Alaster avellaton, of the febbery of the great mail from the south to the beer bu Thursday night on the road about three miles this side of Elkton. The robbety was committed by a person who had taken a passage at the stage of the city to go on in the ath waggon. He proceeded without hundrion until near Elkton, when he knocked down the driver of the mail waggon and tied him: and then drove into the woods where he opened the mail-he continued examining and robbing the letters until day light, when, it is supposed, he made off. He entered his name as a Mr. Dyke, or Dykes, and is represented to be a man five feet, seven or eight inches high, wearing a blue coat and white puntations. A reward of 200 dollar will be paid by the Post Master of altimore for the detection of the robber. Further particulars will doubtless transpire before our next publication. _

From the same of Oct. 29. The Mail -- We have not yet been able to gain any further particulars of consequence respecting the late robbery of the mail near Elkton. The robber took his seat in the wagon at Havre-de-Grace, and having secured the driver as al ready stated, was employed in plundering the mail until day-light, when he was alarmed by a person passing, who relieved the driver. The Robber, however, made his escape before the driver was released, the person passing not being willing to come to the telief of the driver, until he had gone to a neighbouring house, about a mile and a half off. where he procured the assistance of two men to go with him to the place where the driver was tied. Most of the inhabitants of Elkton are in pursuit of the robber. The person who brought the express to Philadephia, saw a man, answering the description of the robber-near Wilmington, Del. in company with three other persons. Three persons have been arrested under suspicious circumstances at Wilmington, and have been committed for further examination. The plundered mail has been sent back to the General Post Office at Washington, whence such letters as are not defaced will be forward. ed to their original destination. One of the letters broken open but left behind, contained, says a Wilmington paper, 9000 dollars. ib.

[No tidings had been received in Baltimore yesterday morning (the 31st Oct.) of the mail robber. The only clow which he left whereby the public may be led to a discovery of him, is a coat with which he covered the driver, on the latter complaining of the cold.]

IMPORTANT ADJUDICATION. On Tuesday last, the County Court of Baltimore, made the following very interesting and momentous decision, upon the act of the General Assembly for the relief of Insolvent Debtors:

First-That the person only of each debtor is discharged by the operations of the statute.

Secondly-That all property of the debtor, subsequently acquired, whether in his own possession or that of a bona fide purchaser, is subect to the effect of a fieri facias;

ut the formality of a scire facias, however long the judgment may have been dormant.

This appears to be, correctly, the substance of the Court's adjudication, which, to us, appears to involve consequences of the greatest importance most serious char-acter. By its elet loose a flood of executions, heretofore considered not only dead and of none effect, but rendered entirely nugatory by the State Law. By it, many innocent purchasers will be deprived of their property, honestly acquired for a fair consideration, and turned over to seek remuneration from a quarter hopeless indeed. By it, the title to a great proportion of property in this vast community will be shaken, perhaps destroyed, by being thus subject to a lien never contemthe community, without contributing to its resources, his eventual recovery. Eve. Post.

Buffaloe, Oct. 10. A correspondent in Michigan, writes as follows: "The emigration to tills country has been unprecedented for the last season. Considerable quantities of land have been entered in the counties of Macomb and Oakland, by settlers, principally from the western parts of New York and the New England states. At Jount Clements and Pontiac, the seats of justice for those counties, every encouragement is given to respectable and industrious mechanics-the former is situated on the river Huron, about four miles from lake St. Clair, which is navigable to the village by vessels of large burthen, with several fine sites for mills-the latter in the centre of a fertile country, with numerous local advanta-

PAIN IN THE BREAST. The Acorus Calimus has lately been discovered to be a remedy for a pain in the breast. The discovery was accidental: the patient chewing it without any design of using it as a medicine.

From the Frederick town Political

Examiner of the 24th ult. We last week papied an article from the Herald on which the number of persons now sick with the prevailing complaint in this county, was estimated at 2,000. We have since been informed that that estimate is much too low. It is supposed by gentlemen having good opportunities to form correct judgments, that at least from three to four thousand persons are at present sick in Frederick county. We have ascertained that Dr. Wm. Tyler has had upwards of five hundred patients at one lime within a few weeks past. Dr. Baltzell has probably had as many. Other physici ans of the town have also been constantly occupied. We have therefore, no doubt that the number of sick greatly exceeds Mr. Thompson's estimate.

From this moment their former love was converted into the most inveterate enmity. They attached chemselves to opposite factions, and sought each other's lives in the conflict of adverse parties. In this manner they continued for more than two years. vowing mutual revenge, and animated with an unconquerable spirit of aversion -At length however, that party of the Jews to which the mean soldier belonged joined with the Romans, it became victorious and drove John, with all his adherents, into the Temple. History has liven us more than one picture of the creadful conflagration of that superbedifice. The Romansoldiers were gathered round it; the whole temple was in flames, and thousands were seen amidst them within its sacred circuit .- It was in this situation of things that the now successful soldier saw his former friend, upon the battlements of the highest tower, looking round with horror, & just ready to consume with flames. All his former tenderness now returned; he saw the man of his bosom just going to perish; and unable to withstand the impulse, he ran spreading his arms, and crying out to his friend, leap down from the top, and find safety with him. The Centurion, (from above) heard and obeyed, and casting himself from the top of the tayon into his fellow soldier's arms, both fell a sacrifice on the spot; one being crushed to death by the weight of his companion, and the other dashed to pieces by the greatness of his fail."
